

Low Hanging Fruit: Descriptions of 1841 from the results returned by the new keyword searches

August 14, 2018

```
Warning in value[[3L]](cond): Object of class MySqlConnection could not be destroyed properly, but was successfully removed from pool. Error message: internal error in RS_DBI_getConnection: corrupt connection handle
Warning: It wasn't possible to activate and/or validate the object. Trying again with a new object.
```

```
Warning in value[[3L]](cond): Object of class MySqlConnection could not be destroyed properly, but was successfully removed from pool. Error message: internal error in RS_DBI_getConnection: corrupt connection handle
Warning: It wasn't possible to activate and/or validate the object. Trying again with a new object.
```

Below are two randomly selected sets of articles from the two classification methods. Which is the better set of articles?

1 First Set

1.1 BRISTOL POLICE. THURSDAY. John Miles for assaulting P. C. 20:, was fined 10s. The defendant was throwing .. (id: 129912)

1.1.1 description

... discharged. Daniel White was charged with assaulting P. C, 207. The constable went to assist another in putting end to some , when the prisoner seized him violently, at the same time giving him several severe kicks. Fined 20s. and costs, or fourteen ...

1.2 THE ELECTIONS (id: 143773)

1.2.1 description

... As both the late members at Karesborough were liberals, Ithis is a loss of two. Kidderminster.-Close of the poll on Wednesday_ Godson (r) .212 Ricardo () .200 City If London .-The official declaration was made on Wednesday as follows:_ ...

1.3 SOUTH DURHAM ELECTION (id: 127546)

1.3.1 description

... with loss life; the circiimslanc* sof which are thus described our authorised currexivoudcot :.t that place : A serious took place Auckland, Saturday afternoon, immediately after the close of the poll. A number of gentlemen, accompanied by ...

1.4 COUKT OF COMMON PLEAS, Guildliali (id: 130705)

1.4.1 description

... how many these were objected to, hut the objections were as numerous the proceed- ing days. There was considerable share around the Court-hous**, and in the streets in its vicinity, and some respectable citizens were roughly handled, hut the other ...

1.5 BOROUGH OF DUNDALK (id: 139381)

1.5.1 description

... the view of murdering some of the friends of Mr Falls. This scene destruction went on for more than half an hour, when the arrived ; but they appeared to altogether unable to repel the rioter*. After some further delay, the military, headed by Major ...

1.6 Local and General Intelligence (id: 156866)

1.6.1 description

... SALFORD HUNDRED QUARTER SESSIS ?? ASHTON RIOOETs.-The twenty-six men indicted for rioting and destroying houses during the at Ashton-under-Lyne, and whose names are, James Broster, Richard Adcroft. John Court, James Hall- worth, Joseph Carter, ...

1.7 EVENING MAIL, FROM FRIDAY, JULY 16. TO MONDAY. JULY 19, 1841 (id: 164641)

1.7.1 description

... excitement, and every probability of riots. Out of a of voters who were yesterday coming in with Mr. Pajne, Lord Bantrys agent, five were desperately maimed in attack made upon them by the opposite , that the agent was obliged to seek a shelter for ...

1.8 Ripon Rothrrtuun (id: 130829)

1.8.1 description

... were the apprehensions of a serious , that it wavy considered expedient to parade them through the town. Fortunately, however, the disturbance had subsided, that ft was unnecessary for the military to uct. The act was read, the mob separated, and ...

1.9 GENERAL ELECTION (id: 115313)

1.9.1 description

... neighbours. The Police conducted the in perfect safety the Mayor's Office. The , Morgan, was brought forward, when the Mayor read the informations of some of the wounded people, charging the with having fired two pistol shots. ...

1.10 KINGTON (id: 140181)

1.10.1 description

... KINGTON. . nomas Jones, was brought up before the Magistrates in Petty Sessions, charged by Superintendent Langdon, under the follow lug circumstances :Siqiorintendent Langdon being sworn stated, that on Thursday, he went into the Magistrates' ...

1.11 NOTTINGHAM ELECTION (id: 134263)

1.11.1 description

... to give them j an opportunity protesting against bribery and coercion, The Times account states that the riotous and lawless which the Whigs had organized in the town and neighliourhood, tor the purpose of intimidating the Conservative electorsthe ...

1.12 WHIGS and TORIES (id: 109361)

1.12.1 description

... R. Peel, proximate cretary Stale for the Co- Tory prrmier, and lead -r of Ionics, and leader of the the l ory in the House Liberal in the House of Commonsreturned for of Commonsreturned for Tarnworth, a pocket bothe city of London 6,221 rough ...

1.13 INFANT SOS OF THE EARL AND COUNTESS OF IILLS- (id: 114904)

1.13.1 description

... before Thomas N. Redington. Esq., M.P., they were apprehended on Monday night last, a strong Constabulary force, and brought to Ardraghan, when the charge was investigated before the following Magistrates;. Thomas N. Redington, M P., Kilcornan; ...

1.14 SINGULAR CASE OF ELOPEMENT (id: 94210)

1.14.1 description

... -rbeUman, Hnout Bsixy years of age, named Thomas Johnson, was charged before Mr. G. Clive, the sitting magistrate at Kensington Court, on Saturday, with having attempted suicide in the station. thouse, Kensungton. It will be in the recollection of our ...

1.15 (Senttal Jiftos (id: 90015)

1.15.1 description

... other day at one of the market tables in this town, with having turned his coat, in giving his support to the Conservative . Why, replied laconicly, think I had better turn it, than hare it tom from my back. There was ueb serious reflection ...

1.16 PHOVINCIAL, &c (id: 117368)

1.16.1 description

... piece*. At late hour the had succeeded it* quelling I lie disturbance. Tom Fabrications.Tii Tory palters Thursday and Friday accountt a horrid outrage* indicted Ireland, in which it was staled, that Mr Gurney, a , wlm had been agent ...

1.17 ELECTORAL MEMORANDA (id: 132134)

1.17.1 description

... Majority of eraiche over Wilbraam 6J9- ' i lc h'g retired at oclock the same evening. CHESTER, Wednesday Morning. SERIOUS . Immediately after the clove of the poll yesterday, th- mob which bad followed the ilbraham party began to cxn.at feelings ...

1.18 MULTUM IN PAR VO (id: 112391)

1.18.1 description

... Committee Privy Council have not appointed any day for giving judgment in case of will of late Mr. Wood, banker, Gloucester. The injured by shots fired Mr. Casement, publican, at Liverpool, when mob were pulling down his house, breaking windows, and ...

1.19 enough MONDAY (id: 115990)

1.19.1 description

... as he was conveying a basket of bread the county Gaol. We are happy to find that the miscreant was seized and is committed . not know whether it innate passion for mob popularity, and a similarity of taste and lowliness of soul, that induces Mr. ...

1.20 POLICE (id: 171373)

1.20.1 description

... words I have been violently used by Lovell. Mr. Jeremy. You do not seem to know that equal justice is administered to all in this court. Do you mean to persist that the police in this case are false sworn ? Defendant. I do. Mr. Jeremy. Then ...

1.21 IPSWICH QUARTER SESSIONS (id: 115363)

1.21.1 description

... prosecution in the case of William Lurry, charged with attempting to rescue a from the constable of Cavendish, by sawing the bars of the cage in which he was confined. Susan Illoham, for felony at Haverhill, was sentenced to 12 months ...

1.22 POLICE INTELLIGENCE (id: 101109)

1.22.1 description

... have lately been committed, if S J? yet traced the property, but he had no doubt that he should be enabled to bring the who attacked and robbed the prosecutor to justice. The prisoner was remanded WOOLWICH POLICE-COURT -Tub row ?? tion.- Yesterday ...

1.23 BUCKINGHAM ASSIZES (id: 137115)

1.23.1 description

... pushing about amongst the mob. Thomas East, sworn Said was labourer at Marlow ; was present on the 27th of February, at the ; saw Richardson pull Horton down a place called ** the court, and take his staff from him. Thus concluded the case for the ...

1.24 T. ROGERS IS instructed by Mr. Thomas Harris, of the UPPER HOUSE, in Eardisley, to announce the Breeders of Sheep, (id: 116243)

1.24.1 description

... propriety of increasing the accommodation in the County Gaol consequence of the new Gaol Regulations, and the number of confined therein. receive the report of the Committee for inquiring into the application Brydges's Charity Money. receive ...

1.25 ORANGE RIOTING (id: 116979)

1.25.1 description

... on the previous evening, upon the house of Mr. O Rorke, of this town. It appeared, from the evidence adduced before the , that the house was deliberately assailed a riotous mob, and the windows were broken; that Mr. Rorke was absent at the time ...

1.26 lastly, though not least, it cannot be you would discountenance him when I tell you, that in the hearing of (id: 83574)

1.26.1 description

... assault on Michael Power, and stabbing him with a shoemakers knife, on the first night of the late City . Verdict Not Guilty. Some other cases were postponed to the October Sessions. Andrew Phelan of the Yellow Rond was indicted for being ...

1.27 DESPERATE RIOT AT KENSINGTON.A MAN STABBED (id: 168837)

1.27.1 description

... that during Saturday evening j repeated squabbles took place in the above locality ' which, however, ended without any the sustaining any serious injury, and by the exertions the police comparative quiet was maintained Wore i midnight. Early Sunday ...

1.28 lastly, though not least, it cannot be you would discountenance him when I tell you, that in the hearing of (id: 147149)

1.28.1 description

... assault on Michael Power, and stabbing him with a shoemakers knife, on the first night of the late City . Verdict Not Guilty. Some other cases were postponed to the October Sessions. Andrew Phelan of the Yellow Rond was indicted for being ...

1.29 RIOTS IOTS IN NOTTINGHAMCALLING OUT OF THE MILITARY (id: 162429)

1.29.1 description

... Fr'dny During the last few day, Nottingham has presented scene of the most disgraceful description. The 14 Lambs' of each have paraded the town at intervals-several conflicts have taken placeand the win dows of the different candidates' inns have ...

1.30 LITTLEHAMPTON (id: 163754)

1.30.1 description

... N. Wioxe, Esq., and Major Allen. John Paine was charged witli an assault on Thomas Woodhams, of 44, Uichmond Street. The had been messengers to Wigneys Committee, and, with several others who had been similarly employed, they on Saturday went ...

2 Second Set

2.1 WHOIiSSAZjS 3R.IBSRir (id: 138635)

2.1.1 description

... had been committed, one those who were the watch obtained policeman, and was taken prisoner immediately and conveyed to the station. There was found on his person the following property money to the amount of ,95. Id., consisting of notes, all ...

2.2 CLARE COUNTY (id: 158694)

2.2.1 description

... gentleman deeply the forehead, and the wound which was hastily dressed the blood again flowed copiously over his dress upon the before a crowded court, and in the presence of his hou. rivals ! Eustace, a poor mao frmn Kilrush, who was murdered by the ...

2.3 CATHOLIC CHURCH (id: 139939)

2.3.1 description

... conducted the case Mr. MNeight. Sedden Death, and Alleged Murder of a Husnani> his Wife investigation was held on Monday, at the -office, for the purpose of inquiring into the circumstances which caused the death of a man named Dunn, pensioner and bla ...

2.4 KENTISH MMII'UKI OKAV xM juoiViNAL. a >L> uKi.L.V W'Cil GAZETiE- (id: 161547)

2.4.1 description

... most- tremendous cheering; by the assemblage. We are sorry to have to record it of the toolers who were employed the Tory ; but justice compels iw to say that they behaved themselves in the moat indecent, insolent manner, alike regardless of persons ...

2.5 FALKIRK, July 2 (id: 130553)

2.5.1 description

... Yellow mob witho.it the slightest provocation. The same was the case at New Lenton, where the Whigs got np a , where Whig magistrate read the Act,but where no Whig policeman showed himself until life and property were both injured. As usual, u the ...

2.6 MORNINti ADVERTISER, SATURDAY, JUNE 26, 1841 (id: 94281)

2.6.1 description

... and defendant to enter into sureties to keep the peace towards each other, and the costs to be divided between them. [In our report of yesterday paragraph appeared respecting child having been bitten a ferocious dog, which was erroneously stated to ...

2.7 COUNTY OF KILDARE ELECTION (id: 161382)

2.7.1 description

... before the Riot Act was read, and tk* police and , quite in their own defence, were obliged to fire upon them. This alternative was avoided until tk ...

2.8 First, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, Lord Morpeth, the Secretary for Ireland, and, next to Lord John Russell .. (id: 140803)

2.8.1 description

... Joy-street and Cromac-street. The consternation among the peaceable portion of the community is very great. The military and are all engaged in keeping the mobs separate and quelling riots. Ulster Times. ...

2.9 WOOLWICH DOCKYARD (id: 112745)

2.9.1 description

... carriage drove up, in which was Mrs. Williams, a lady residing in Lee-terrace, accompanied by Dr. Carr, of Blackheath. The , having entered the station-house, Mrs. Williams charged the two gentlemen, who gave their names Dr. David Solmes and Dr. ...

2.10 THE ELECTIONS (id: 142210)

2.10.1 description

... THE . ST. ALBAN'S. On Monday the business of the commenced the bands and colours of the Blues and the Oranges parading the town. At o'clock the Mayor. Mr. Rumball. opened the proceedings. He said that the borough had been pointed out ...

2.11 Local intelligence.. (id: 147228)

2.11.1 description

... stealing silk handkerchief from Mr. S. Uoulden, sentenced to six weeks imprisonment and hard labour. COUNTY . On the day appointed for the of the three member' for this County and the Isle of Ely, the Tories assembled at ten o'clock in the morning ...

2.12 HURST (id: 114806)

2.12.1 description

... inquire into the chants against Mr. Charles Haary Martian Dyer, an of the Bench, of offering to procure the release for sum of money. The peioaaar is Mr. Medbortt, who it undergoes for alahbisg a follow, at school in .HayoSi end the ...

2.13 lastly, though not least, it cannot be you would discountenance him when I tell you, that in the hearing of (id: 126253)

2.13.1 description

... being struck. Had that been done, a great deal of expense, inconvenience, and confusion would have been avoided. The Court to Monday, Sept. Cth. MR. WALLER IN DUNG ARYAN. FUNGARVAN PETIT SESSIONS, July 17. The magistrates presiding were Doctor ...

2.14 PROVINCIAL INTELLIGENCE (id: 116204)

2.14.1 description

... Journal. The Royal Police. Almost the first case of assault on the members of the rural police with a view to the rescue of , came before the Assizes at Buckingham (Norfolk circuit) on Monday, when three men were sentenced, one to six, and the others ...

2.15 MARLOW (id: 149294)

2.15.1 description

... MARLOW. The A ludicrous circumstance occurred in the canvass of this town, which shows how early the scions of the Tories are initiated into acts of threatening and intimidating those tradesmen who think for themselves. A puny boy, a youngster ...

2.16 Bath Union.The nnmber of paupers the Bath Union Workhouse 5(2, and 777 are receiving oat-door relief. The .. (id: 94461)

2.16.1 description

... with despatches for the United States Government.Brislot Journal. A novel implement of housebreaking was found by the Bath on Sunday se'nnight, in the path which leads from Bathwick hill to the North parade bridge. It is made of iron, and so constructed ...

2.17 (From the Montreal Gazette, June}..) (id: 112891)

2.17.1 description

... Friday last. We can vouch for the facts as are about to relate them, they transpired within our own cognizance, and all the are personally known us. Friday morning, halt past five oclock, a resident in Widetnarsh Street was awakened the violent ...

2.18 EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM DCNDALE (id: 117066)

2.18.1 description

... before his brother officers publicly; Mr. Reynolds was taken into custody by the , and the police assisted tbe to suppress thesisA 5 To (Mr. Leckey)He saw the occurrence in the morning, which led Mr. Reynold's visit ...

2.19 GENERAL ELECTION, (id: 137467)

2.19.1 description

... utmost excitement pervades the bo- rough, and I am sorry to say that the hall of nomination was the scene of a most disgraceful , several of Sergeant Wilde's hired ruffians having broken into the hall during the proceedings, and commenced an indiscriminate ...

2.20 CENTRAL CRIMINAL COURT, Saturday, June 19 (id: 114671)

2.20.1 description

... prosecution. Mary Ann Beveridge stated, that she resided in the same house with the and husband, in Fell-street. About o'clock on the morning of the 4th of June, the was sitting the top the stairs crying ; she tried get into her room, but could ...

2.21 COUNTY OF GLOUCESTER (CHELTENHAM) RACKS (id: 126279)

2.21.1 description

... declaring it to be his opinion that deceased died from consumption, produced a complaint in the bowels. The inauest was then for an hour, when, after the examination of numerous witnesses (deceaseds widow araoug the rest), all of whom swore that ...

2.22 ISULTUm IN PARVO (id: 115778)

2.22.1 description

... passing stables threw dead rat him with such force to knock him end on bis remonstrating with him he seized him lss arms and dashed him the curb-stone; prosecutor picked large stone to defend himself from further violence, when again dashed ...

2.23 of the Cheltenham Chronicle (id: 165359)

2.23.1 description

... of the Cheltenham Chronicle. The vexation of the Radietl in the city, breaks out into acts of black-guardism. A letter was sent, on Saturday last, by post, to the house of active supporter of the Conservative candidate! (Mr. R. Cooke, of St. Bri ...

2.24 IRELAND (id: 128109)

2.24.1 description

... ecclesiastical offititls, com- nienced their outiageous proceedings at one o'clock on the morning of' the 12th, and after the neigh- bourhood by a continted series of gunashots, up to eig ht in the moriilil, they erected two arches across the ...

2.25 POLICE,Guildhall, Monday (id: 165329)

2.25.1 description

... 8e ' to which he finally put a stop by walking a to the Station-house, not, however, before nc nad repeatedly advised the to cut connexion each other. John James, a witness, who went with ' , corr horated the statement, assuring the Magistrates ...

2.26 THE LONDONDERRY (id: 166439)

2.26.1 description

... Just this period Mr. Vaodelcurs , consisting several hundred mounted men, rode into Jail-sireet, with that gentleman at their head, in his carriage, when they were immediately assailed all tides by the adverse with bludgeons, stones, brickbats ...

2.27 IRISH ELECTIONS, (id: 113268)

2.27.1 description

... and the other prisoner was taken at the corner ol Ship-street. A voter of the name of Roberts was forcibly taken away by a coal porters, and kept in a house in Patricks-close for upwards four hours. He at length succeeded in escaping from his assailants ...

2.28 TIPPERARY..lie Cork f7on.it/i4w/tnn. 1 (id: 115609)

2.28.1 description

... crowd were pursuing him. Mr. O'Driscoll stopped him, and, .seizing oue of the foremost of the pursuers, told him he was a . What do you arrest me for, Sir ? demauded the fellow; I have as good a right to be in the street as you have, and I ...

2.29 KERRY ELECTION (id: 134008)

2.29.1 description

... Broderick, of Macroom, was also assailed on the same evening; he sought shelter the glebehouse of the Rev. Mr. Herbert, and the then vented their splenetic vengeance against the glebe, and broke the windows. The glebe-lodge became also the object of their ...

2.30 POLICE (id: 115452)

2.30.1 description

... entered, the were searched, and upwards of 20L in gold, gold rings and pins, a case of surgical instruments, a book of letters, and eleven duplicates of valuable property, Were found upon them. Mrs. Williams stated that the called her ...